

Matt Hall

Red Bull Air Race Pilot, Risk Management Expert & Motivator

Matt is a highly authentic and memorable keynote speaker, corporate speaker and master of ceremonies. He captivates audiences with mind-blowing aviation stories and near-death experiences while seeding key inspirational and educational messages. Matt is extremely engaging in a social setting and welcomes the opportunity to interact with event attendees.

Matt epitomises the core elements of a true champion and gentleman. He is one of the most polished and engaging event speakers you will ever meet, bringing to life his fascinating story from humble beginnings to unimaginable goals. Matt is a third-generation pilot whose life in aviation has seen intense military combat, multiple near-death experiences and immortalisation in the fastest motorsport on the planet.

Matt is the reigning Red Bull Air Race world champion. He placed third in his world championship racing debut in 2009 becoming the first rookie in history to make it to the podium. Matt has since accumulated seven wins and 25 podiums, making him the most successful air racing pilot in the modern era.

Former wing commander in the Royal Australian Air Force, a combat veteran of Iraq with USAF medals for heroism under fire in his F-15E Strike Eagle fighter jet, Matt takes his audience into a world where the stakes are high and the margins are extremely slim.

Client testimonials

“ QBE booked Matt Hall a number of times. We were so impressed by his ability to captivate an audience that we engaged him as the QBE Airmanship Ambassador. The risk mitigation and risk management take away from Matt’s presentations is so thought provoking that it can be applied to any industry or vocation. I recommend Matt highly as a guest speaker, whether it is in the area of airmanship, risk management, motivation, situational awareness or simply entertaining tales from his inspirational life story.

- QBE

“ We engaged Matt Hall to enhance our company’s risk management capability and what we received was far beyond what we could have ever expected. Our experience with Matt made us more inquisitive about how great we could really become. Matt’s real-life experiences, the knowledge he imparted and the, “I’m just the same as you” approach left us all reflecting and acting on the opportunities that we have to be safer people and more importantly the reasons why. Matt introduced a common and down to earth risk management language that still echoes around our work environment. I would encourage any organisation to talk with Matt and his team if you are looking for a way to inspire and motivate a mind-set.

“ Matt Hall spoke recently at our annual conference, his presentation was both enthralling and inspiring. His story of courage and perseverance captured the interest of our attendees and in fact caused many to comment on how valuable his speech was. Matt spoke with such intensity and passion, he drew the audience in and painted a vivid picture of his experiences. His determination throughout his career, although unique in its character, is something that we can all aspire to.
