

Rob Brown

Comedian & MC

After hitting the stage in 2002, Rob Brown has become one of Australia's leading stand-up comedians.

Rob's satirical, cheeky, out of the box views on the world comes from a very interesting past. From experiences growing up in a caravan park, working for over a decade as a prison officer in maximum security prisons, his time training security services in Iraq and Afghanistan, his family life - children, and marriage, and more (it is questionable which is more dangerous).

Some have described Rob's comedy as edgy and direct while others, call him conventionally unconstrained, however all agree Rob is extremely funny and a welcome distinction to the comedy scene. Rob's ability to think on his feet and improvise is the best in the game. Rob Brown quickly earns the right to go to those uncomfortable places and in his wickedly clever and funny way, leaves the audience overwhelmed with laughter and wanting more.

With headlined performances in Singapore, Malaysia, New Zealand, UK and performances in the US, Rob can truly be called an international act. Rob is also a regular comedian on the Carnival Cruise Ships.

When at home Rob performs at many Corporate and Sports Lunches. Performing regularly with Fatty Vauntin, Andrew Voss and Scott Sattler, Rob Brown is a must if your planning a sports lunch and need a comedian. Rob has performed regularly on the Footy Show showing he can be clean and funny.

In August 2009 Rob had his first Solo show at the Edinburgh Comedy Festival. Robs show "What A Load of Kabul!" was a captivating one-hour show of his journey to Afghanistan, and the unexpected twists that occurred. He performed his show to rave reviews and took the main stage at Edinburgh Comedy Festivals "Late and Live" show.

“ He's a charming, naturally funny man with a talent for storytelling. He got the biggest applause I have heard for any stand up at this years festival...a big, lovely bloke who made you feel a little bit better about the world.

“ It's always hard to find an incredibly funny comedian that can deliver to a diverse audience particularly at a conference event. All I can say is, Rob was marvellous and so fitting for our conference. The room was in stitches most of the evening, and we are a tough crowd. Thank you Rob for completing the evening as our MC/Entertainer. Brilliant!!

“ Rob controlled a usually very rowdy and hard to deal with crowd of tradesman. He kept the evening on point and was very funny. We will definitely use him again next year.
