

Natalie Gruzlewski

Television Host & MC

A naturally talented TV Presenter and naturally engaging corporate host, Natalie Gruzlewski's successful career in media spans two decades.

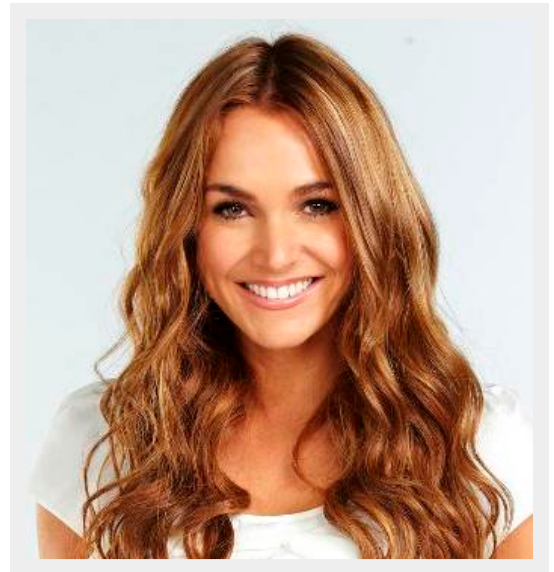

Currently Natalie is host of Channel 7's Farmer Wants A Wife.

Her debut television role was as news reporter and weather presenter for the Nine Network. She later went on to host Channel 9's popular travel show 'Getaway', becoming a much loved member of the team, reporting from some of the world's most exciting destinations.

As a well-known television personality, along with various special features for the Australian Women's Weekly, Logies red carpet and entertainment segments.

From 2007-2012 8 series - she went on to host the popular match-making show, Farmer Wants A Wife, followed by When Love Comes To Town and Australia's Mega Cruise Ship, all roles that has endeared her in the hearts of viewers around the country.

Complimenting her presenting roles, Natalie is an established MC - event host and Brand Ambassador. Supporting and working with various charities Life Education, Bravehearts, RSPCA and Foodbank.

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 