

Marc Priestley

Formula One Commentator, Team Culture & Elite Performance Expert

An industry leading speaker, business consultant, coach and mentor from the high-performance world of Formula One.

Marc Priestley is also a tv presenter, F1 commentator, award winning author and host of the hugely successful Pitlane Life Lessons Podcast.

After a decade with the globally renowned McLaren Group as a senior figure in engineering and leadership at one of F1's most successful teams, Marc now shares his insights and learnings with businesses and events around the world.

Using his 1st hand experience with the elite pitstop crew, changing wheels in less than 2 seconds, and winning World Championships with superstars like Lewis Hamilton, Marc teaches the mindset and strategy required to make accurate, pressurised decisions fast, whilst constantly performing at the highest level.

Mark Priestley Talks About

- How do you build high performing teams
- Foster an organisational culture to breed innovation
- Market yourself differently from the competition
- Use data to create advantages
- Get buy-in from your team when going through change

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE

VIDEO OF SPEAKER

