

Jane Wundersitz

Award-winning speaker, master trainer and founder of WunderTraining

Positive - Engaging - Empowering

Jane Wundersitz has supported over 10,000 people in discovering their strengths and has delivered to over 60,000 people. She is one of today's influential voices, bringing robust research into positive culture and leadership, high-performance teams, engagement, resilience, trust and psychological safety to the workplaces with energy and oomph.

With 25 years of experience in People and Culture Development, Jane has worked in International, State and Regional Senior Leadership roles in Australia and the UK. Jane is a high-energy and engaging speaker. Her positive approach complements the active learning environment. Participants stay involved throughout the session; self-reflection, interaction and personal application are high. She loves diving into the latest research and creatively crafting and tailoring keynotes and workshops to fuel a safe and inclusive learning environment, building opportunities to connect, reflect and share opinions, and informing audiences simultaneously.

Jane is an award-winning Speaker, VIA Strengths Australian Master Trainer, Applied Positive Psychology and Neuroscience Practitioner, Accredited Mental Toughness partner, Positive Change Activist and Resilience Coach.

Her conference workshops and presentations are creative, high energy and interactive and will provide a powerful and memorable experience for all attendees.
