

Julie Cross

Award winning and motivational keynote speaker

Julie Cross is a masterful story teller, inspiring changemaker and will connect the information in our heads with the inspiration in our hearts. Julie is empowering, energising and entertaining. Inspiring success through real-life leadership.

Recently receiving the Keynote Speaker of the Year Award from Professional Speakers Australia, Julie combines powerful insights into human behaviour with practical strategies that leaves audiences with tools for living their best life, reconnecting to their resilience, lifting their energetic frequency, and setting a higher standard in all aspects of their existence.

Her success comes from a foundation of applying disciplined self-leadership, focused self-belief, inspiring resilience and proven business skills and strategies. Julie truly has excelled in the university of real life. If you want your delegates to feel inspired, energized and entertained with an energy and practical strategies that can immediately make a difference both personally and professionally, then Julie Cross can add great value to your event.

Julie customizes content to the events theme and outcomes, her genre of speaking is inspirational and motivational with themes around self-leadership, personal energy and mood management, resilience and emotional and mental wellbeing.

Keynote presentations:

- The Power of Positive Energy
- Service with Attitude
- The Courageous Leader
- Customised Closing Keynote

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 