

Dominique Pratt

Popular WA TV Presenter, MC and Speaker

Dominique Pratt is a presenter on Channel Seven's lifestyle show Home in WA. Since joining the show in 2008, she has travelled throughout WA showcasing the best home ideas and tourist spots and, along the way, has become a very popular media personality in her home state.

As well as television, Dominique also appears on radio where she presents and produces for ABC 720. She has also presented and produced for ABC TV and for commercial radio on Mix 94.5 and 92.9.

Her professionalism and warmth have made her a sought-after MC and Dominique has hosted a number of entertainment events including the prestigious WA Music Industry Awards. She has also been a TV presenter for the Starlight Children's Foundation

Bright and cheerful, as well as versatile and accomplished, Dominique Pratt brings a touch of fun to any event.

Even at high school, where she produced and presented Mercedes College's MCFM radio station, Dominique had an interest in the media. She then achieved a Bachelor of Media Studies at Murdoch University, followed in 2008 by a Graduate Diploma in Broadcasting at the WA Academy of Performing Arts.

In 2009 Dominique Pratt won the prestigious student prize at the WA Media Awards when she was named Student Journalist of the Year by the WA Journalists Association.

She was the people's choice winner for the 2012 Face of Enex100 competition and has appeared in a number of advertising campaigns including Burswood Casino, Curtain Wonderland and as a brand ambassador for international healthy lifestyle company Pik Life.

Dominique loves music and she can often be seen supporting her favourite local bands with tambourine in hand. She has interviewed a number of Australian and International indie bands and produced music videos.

Dominique was an elite swimmer for many years and has swum the English Channel in a team which posted the fastest time in the world that year. She now gives back to the community by frequently helping out at her swimming club. In her spare time, she fits in the occasional modelling assignment.

Client testimonials

“ Dominique was a brilliant host for our awards night. Her energy and enthusiasm on stage made for a fun and entertaining evening. She remained composed and in control throughout the night and the audience loved her.
