

Stu Wilson

Former Star All Black Winger

Stu Wilson has been described as one of the greatest All Black Wingers of all time, alongside Jonah Lomu and John Kirwan.

During an impressive rugby career, Stu Wilson played against most of the leading rugby nations including Argentina, France, Ireland, Wales, South Africa, Scotland, Australia, Romania, Italy, Fiji, Canada and the USA.

Stu Wilson's enviable All Black Rugby career included 85 matches and 34 tests, during which he scored more than 50 tries.

Over almost a decade playing rugby, in 199 first class appearances, he scored 106 times. Indeed, for several years, his 19 test tries were an All Black record.

Stu Wilson's 1981 season was his greatest. In just one season, he appeared in eight internationals and scored eight tries.

After captaining the All Black side to Scotland and England in 1983, Wilson announced his retirement.

Since retiring, Stu Wilson has remained one of the game's most astute observers. He is a highly respected media commentator on both television and radio, often appearing with the rugby commentary team on Sky Television.
