

Cameron Daddo

Radio Host, Actor & TV Presenter

Cameron Daddo is a multi-award winning, internationally recognised entertainer who has acted and presented on stage, screen, and radio. Over a diverse career spanning 30 years in the entertainment industry, he has produced and directed films, television programs and musical theatre. Multi-talented, he is a published singer/songwriter and a successful magazine columnist.

Cameron Daddo is also a talented MC and host who is in high demand for community, government and corporate events.

More about Cameron Daddo:

He has covered just about every angle... acting, producing, directing for film & television through to musical theatre.

Cameron kicked off his performing career as a model at the age of 18 and went on to host children's television The Dish and The Cameron Daddo Show. He moved into prime time TV to host Perfect Match and onto stage with productions including the lead in Big River and the Scarecrow in Wizard of Oz. After marrying model Alison Brahe they moved to Los Angeles in '92 and appeared in many top rating television shows, including all of the CSI's and NCSI's, and The Mentalist. He featured as the Vice President in a season of 24 and played the President in the hit series, Nikita.

Cameron has worked between the US and Australia. His local stage credits include Captain Von Trapp in The Sound of Music, the narrator for The Rocky Horror Show, Legally Blonde and TV drama performances including Beaconsfield, and series regular as Adam Goodman in Packed to the Rafters.

Cameron broadcasts seven nights a week on his number one rating national radio show on Smooth FM.

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 