

Corinne Grant

Comedian, Actor, Writer & Presenter

Corinne Grant is a successful MC, host, moderator, performer and writer.

Coming to prominence as an original cast member on Network Ten's Rove Live, Corinne's career as a performer, comedian and writer grew from strength to strength. With success on the highly popular Glasshouse on the ABC, host of Channel Seven's current hit Airways, as well as being a respected columnist, social commentator, stand-up comedian, MC and facilitator, Corinne has a breadth of knowledge and experience that has seen her perform for corporate clients and as an invited festival participant all around the world.

Corinne is a lawyer, completing her Juris Doctor at Melbourne University in 2015. She was admitted to practice in 2017. She is an Associate at Camatta Lempens Lawyers in Adelaide, practicing in the areas of employment, discrimination, commercial law and the Privacy Act.

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 