Side-Splitting Comedian

Nath Valvo is a crowd pleasing, internationally recognised comedian with experience in front of live audiences, television cameras and on radio.

On the international circuit, his massively physical, high-energy comedy has won praise from critics and crowds, among them the famously sardonic Graham Norton (he has the Tweet to prove it).

Nath's 2018 was his biggest year yet. His show Show Pony won the Adelaide Fringe Weekly Best Comedy Award and was the runaway hit of the Melbourne Comedy Festival, adding five extra dates to meet demand. Audiences could not tear their eyes away from his razor-sharp MICF Gala spot which went viral, racking up over two million views and counting!

Far from camera-shy, Nath has an impressive list of TV appearances under his belt having hosted ABC's Comedy Up Late and recorded an hour long stand up special as part of ABC's Comedy Next Gen. Nath's other TV credits include The Project, Dirty Laundry Live and Just For Laughs Sydney.

Nath loves the sound of his own voice which, luckily for him, has resulted in an impressive radio career. In 2015 Nath hosted the Saturday Morning Breakfast Show on Nova 100 in Melbourne and now regularly appears on the KIIS FM, Nova, Triple M & Triple J networks.

On the international stage, he was nominated for Best Newcomer at the world's biggest arts festival, the Edinburgh Fringe, had a hit season at the Soho Theatre in London and was selected for the MICF Asia Roadshow performing shows in Singapore, Hong Kong and Kuala Lumpur.
