

Dane Simpson

Comedian

Dane Simpson was a Deadly Funny national finalist in 2015; since then, it has been a fast-rising trajectory for this Wagga based comedian with a whirlwind of corporate gigs, tours, and festival runs - as both a solo artist and as part of Aborigi-LOL.

Dane has appeared on the Melbourne International Comedy Festival Gala, the Opening Night Comedy Allstars Supershow, Channel 10's Have You Been Paying Attention, Get Krackin, and in feature film rom-com The Merger.

He also produces the monthly Riverina Comedy Club and is a programmer/ producer to the Wagga Comedy Festival every year when there isn't a pandemic. During lockdown, Dane became host of cult-hit Servo Bingo - an interactive online show revolving around the vehicles and characters turning up at the service station opposite Thirsty Crow brewery in Wagga. Yes, it was as silly and fun as it sounds.
