

David Lennie

Stand-Up Comedian & Corporate Hoaxer

David Lennie is a master of communication and a comedy specialist. His ability to research, write and perform for any audience is the culmination of twenty years of study, creative development and application in fields as diverse as sales, training and theatrical production. One of Australia's most versatile performers, David's material is clean, funny and original.

As a stand-up comedian, David Lennie has received numerous accolades from the corporate sector and as a television and radio performer. He has appeared on Tonight Live with Steve Vizard and The Midday Show, and on Headliners and Dying is Easy, Comedy is Hard on the Comedy Channel. He has also performed as support to several international stars including Shirley Maclaine.

As a writer David Lennie worked on the second series of Full Frontal and was a writer/performer on Today Tonight and Brooksy's Football Show on Channel 7 in Perth. He has also written four children's books which have been published by Collins/Angus and Robertson, and Fremantle Arts Press.

In radio David Lennie has created comedy sketches for Triple M Perth's Breakfast show, performed lead roles in various ABC Radio National comedy and drama productions, and written and performed for PMFM Perth, with some of his sketches being aired on Triple M Sydney and SAFM.

Whether performing a hoax, a comedy routine, or being Master of Ceremonies, David Lennie is a consummate professional who will deliver your message in a humorous and entertaining way.

David's impressive client list includes Toyota, Alcoa, Woolworths, Kenwood, GMH, Dulux, AMP, Uncle Toby's, Coca Cola and KPMG.

Client testimonials

“ David Lennie was excellent. He did a great deal of research, was extremely witty and kept the crowd buzzing.

- Operating Room Nurses Association

“ David Lennie's humorous comments were so relevant to the industry that the National President thought Mr Lennie must have been a member of the institute.

- Australian Institute Of Land Valuers And Economists

“ You were a great success. The telecommunications industry is a sensitive one and we admired your ability to expertly tailor your humour without treading on any corns.

- Service Providers Industry Association

VIEW SPEAKER'S BIO ONLINE 