

Opera By Disguise

Interactive Opera at its Best

From the creators of The Rat Pack's Back comes a brand new innovative and interactive show.

A Guest Speaker and his Beautiful Wife mingle with unsuspecting guests before taking their seats at the VIP table. Meanwhile, an Average Joe acquaints himself with the room and his fellow unassuming guests. The event now underway, your three guests-in-disguise settle in with their infiltration...

Taking the stage, the Guest Speaker is introduced and begins his speech. Much to the audience's surprise, amid the apparently professional monologue, the Guest Speaker remarkably breaks into singing an outstanding aria.

With some help from the audience, the speaker's Beautiful Wife is encouraged to join him on stage. After a little coercing, the couple perform a spectacular operatic duet!

Average Joe leaps to his feet in the audience with cries of 'Bravo, bravo!' Showing his appreciation, he jumps up on a chair launching into a stirring, unique rendition of Waltzing Matilda.

The three performers then join forces singing a mix of operatic and contemporary songs, with spine tingling results!

This brand new Australian production incorporates great singing, humour and of course the secret ingredient of audience participation. Employing some of the best performers in Australia, Opera by Disguise ensures a true operatic experience encompassing some of the world's most loved arias entwining great laughs along the way.

“ Opera by Disguise is not just a unique act but (they) are gifted & talented sopranos & tenors as good as you will hear anywhere in the world today. Their ability to blend in & be part of the crowd is professional & polished. We deceived 100% of our audience, with 1 x VIP guest convinced he was going to fly to Italy & meet Maria's sister & another inviting them to his hotel for Dinner when Maria & Marco returned to Australia. We will certainly be booking Opera by Disguise again.
